

Abacus Emerging Markets authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA)

Abacus Emerging Markets is delighted to announce it is now authorised and regulated by the United Kingdom's Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA").

Said Managing Director Torsten Böhler: "We're delighted that Abacus Emerging Markets is officially authorised to conduct regulated financial services in the UK. Being regulated by the FCA means our clients can rest assured that Abacus adheres to the highest possible business and financial standards. We're very excited that we can now offer a broad range of financial services in our chosen sectors".

About Abacus Emerging Markets

Abacus Emerging Markets is an independent Anglo-Australian specialist investment banking firm dedicated to connecting European and Australasian businesses with their emerging market counterparts to take advantage of the best business and investment opportunities available.

Our team brings together extensive financial markets experience in Europe and Australasia with a dedicated specialism and significant client base in the key emerging markets of Central Asia, the Middle East and North Africa (MENA).

Abacus Emerging Markets offers a first rate corporate advisory capability alongside an in-depth understanding of the local business, cultural and structural requirements in our target emerging markets. Our clients can depend on our high quality objective advice.

Our firm is greatly strengthened by an expert team of Advisory Board members who add strength and depth to the firm in the following areas:

- Agribusiness
- International trade
- Mining and Commodities
- Real Estate, Construction and Infrastructure

Our combination of expertise, industry contacts and structuring know how represents a truly unique service offering.
